

CHRISTOPHER M. SEIDLER

"Hits Count!"

Chris believes in promoting the safe and responsible use of firearms, the safe enjoyment of shooting sports, and in educating the public by providing visible leadership by example and dissemination of pertinent information. He has been a certified instructor and range safety officer since 2013 and has taught hundreds of students over dozens of days on the range. His professional experience includes ten years of military service to include qualification as a weapons officer, anti-terrorism officer, and multiple combat deployments to include dozens of "outside the wire" convoys and patrols.

Chris currently teaches classes in Las Vegas, NV. His instruction is as a volunteer with Revere's Riders, a 501C3 non-profit affiliated with the Civilian Marksmanship Program, National Rifle Association, and NV Firearms Coalition.

His wife Heather is also a firearms coach and safety instructor. Chris & Heather are proud parents and are passionate about outdoor activities, American history, and civic engagement in their spare time.
